

Wednesday, June 18, 2008 from 10am-6pm
 Northeastern University Raytheon Amphitheater in the Egan Research Center

10:00-11:30 – U.S. Department of Education, Office of the Inspector General

Presenters: Mark Deckett, Matthew Wardle

The presentation will provide information on the role and authority of the Department's Inspector General's Office. There will also be some discussion on how to report fraud to the Inspector General's Office and ways financial aid officers can help prevent fraud in student financial assistance programs. Information will also be shared on some recent criminal and civil prosecutions that involved fraud in student financial assistance programs.

11:30-12:30 – TEACH Grant

Presenters: Thomas Threlkeld, Training Officer U.S. Department of Education and Tony Erwin, President of MASFAA

12:30-1:15 – Lunch

1:15-2:15 – Dr. Phillip R. Day, Jr., President of NASFAA

2:15-4:15 – Ensuring Continued Access to Student Loans Act of 2008 and Lender of Last Resort

Presenter: Betsy Mayotte, Directory of Privacy and Regulatory Compliance, American Student Assistance

4:15-6:15 – Reception

- Thank you to MASFAA volunteers
- Volunteer of the Year Presentation
- Passing of the Gavel to President-Elect Kathy Osmond

Visit www.masfaa.org for Registration and More Information - Space is Limited